2015 NMSDC CONFERENCE
+ BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY EXCHANGE
10.18 -10.21 SAN DIEGO, CA
It is our pleasure to invite you to join your peers, colleagues and business partners in San Diego, California, October 18 - 21, for the 2015 National Minority Supplier Development Council Conference and Business Opportunity Exchange at the San Diego Convention Center.

The only event of its kind, the NMSDC Conference offers the best of meetings, special events and minority business, and supplier diversity’s most senior corporate influencers. This year’s Conference program, coupled with the Business Opportunity Exchange, is an event you can’t afford to miss.

NMSDC and the local Host Committee, co-chaired by John G. Stumpf, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Wells Fargo & Company and Bruce Geier, chief executive officer of Technology Integration Group (TIG), has planned an exciting program centered around the theme “Economic Impact: Redefining the Business Case.”

We hope that you will be among the nearly 6,000 procurement executives, supplier diversity professionals, Asian, Black, Hispanic and Native American business owners, government officials and other special guests from the U.S. and abroad who will attend NMSDC’s biggest event of the year.

In honor of National Minority Enterprise Development (MED) Week, we are pleased to announce a collaboration with the U.S. Department of Commerce Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA). In conjunction with our annual Conference, MBDA will host National MED Week programming. These Powered by MBDA learning opportunities will feature the latest information and trends on federal procurement, international trade and technology innovation. MBDA shares our commitment to creating opportunity, building networks, and acknowledging the outstanding achievements of minority firms and advocates. We invite you to enrich your Conference experience by engaging in the many benefits of this partnership!

This year’s Conference will deliver the most up-to-date information on minority supplier development. Speakers at plenary sessions and workshops will share the latest information on successful approaches and strategies for global competition. Personalize your learning experience by choosing from 20 workshops and other targeted sessions; more than 750 booths at the Business Opportunity Exchange and network, network, network!

Visit NMSDCConference.com and register for the Conference by September 4, to take advantage of substantial savings on registration fees. Please share this opportunity with others in your organization who might benefit from attending the premier forum on minority supplier development. Make the most of all this event has to offer. Finalize your plans and register today!

On behalf of the NMSDC Network, we thank you for your continued support and look forward to seeing you in San Diego.

Warmest Regards,

Joset Wright-Lacy
President
National Minority Supplier Development Council, Inc.

Mission
The National Minority Supplier Development Council is the global leader in advancing business opportunities for certified Asian, Black, Hispanic and Native American business enterprises and connecting them to corporate members. One of the country’s leading corporate membership organizations, NMSDC was chartered in 1972 to provide increased procurement and business opportunities for minority businesses of all sizes.

National Network
The NMSDC Network includes a national office in New York City and 24 affiliate regional councils across the country. There are 1,750 corporate members throughout the network, including America’s top publicly-owned, privately-owned and foreign-owned companies, as well as universities, hospitals and other major purchasing institutions. The regional councils certify and match more than 12,000 Asian, Black, Hispanic and Native American-owned businesses with member corporations that want to purchase their products, services and solutions.

Purchasing Activity
In 2013, NMSDC member corporations purchased more than $100 billion in products, services and solutions from NMSDC-certified minority business enterprises. This was accomplished not by lowering corporate purchasing standards—in fact, these standards have grown more rigorous in recent years—but by sourcing qualified firms and giving them business on a competitive basis.

Our Certified MBEs
NMSDC has more than 12,000 certified MBEs, with 73 percent of the firms owned by males and 27 percent owned by females. Our MBEs represent a broad range of industries in support of the global corporate supply chain.

Supplier Diversity and Economic Viability
The future of the U.S. economy depends on robust minority businesses.

Value Proposition: Minority business is critical to the economic growth of the U.S.
NMSDC affiliate regional councils certify Asian, Black, Hispanic and Native American-owned business enterprises after screening, interviews and site visits.

NMSDC provides referrals to corporate buyers of minority suppliers capable of providing quality products, services and solutions.

Corporate Plus® is a membership program for minority businesses with proven capability to execute national contracts.

Centers of Excellence is a program to enhance successful business relationships between corporations and MBEs by strengthening corporate minority supplier development processes.

The Business Consortium Fund (BCF) provides working capital loans and access to specialized financing to NMSDC-certified minority businesses with supplier/vendor relationships with NMSDC national and regional corporate members.

The Growth Initiative creates a certification category for minority-controlled firms that allows NMSDC-certified MBEs to retain minority status and control while accepting equity capital from institutional investors.

Advanced Management Education Program (AMEP) is a four-day customized executive education offering at Northwestern University’s Kellogg School of Management with highly intensive training and technical assistance for CEOs of minority-owned firms.

Minority Business Executive Program (MBEP) is a one-week intensive program offered in partnership with the University of Washington’s Foster School of Business. The program features an interactive curriculum focused on finance and accounting; human resource management; leadership; marketing and brand strategy; and relationship strategic thinking.

Business Opportunity Fairs are a platform for minority suppliers to present their company’s products, services and solutions to hundreds of prospective buyers in one location.

Continuing Education Seminars are available annually to national and regional corporate members in support of minority supplier development.

Networking opportunities that allow suppliers to engage directly with appropriate purchasing agents.

The Global-Link International Program guides development of a worldwide network of non-governmental organizations that provide connections between historically-excluded businesses and corporate buyers abroad. NMSDC international partners are located in Australia, Canada, China, South Africa and the United Kingdom.

The invitation-only Program Connect Reception is exclusively for participants and graduates of NMSDC programs. This event has been designed for you to network and develop long-term relationships. Build your social capital and leverage relationships and learn more about NMSDC.

Sponsored by:

Awards and special recognition for exemplary leadership among corporate members, MBEs and affiliate regional councils are presented at the NMSDC Leadership Awards in May and at the Conference and Business Opportunity Exchange in the fall.
MBDA PARTNERS WITH NMSDC!

The Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA) is honored to continue the Minority Enterprise Development (MED) Week tradition in partnership with the National Minority Supplier Development Council at the 2015 NMSDC Conference and Business Opportunity Exchange.

The 2015 National MED Week celebration, recognized at the NMSDC Conference, will feature several Powered by MBDA workshops and seminars with a focus on federal programs. MBDA will also host a reception to present the 33rd Annual National MED Week Awards.

Celebrating MED Week
Since 1983, every president has issued a Presidential Proclamation designating a National Minority Enterprise Development (MED) Week to recognize the contributions of the minority business community to the U.S. economy. For more than 30 years, MBDA has led the National MED WEEK program to convene minority business leaders, government officials, corporate executives, and thought leaders; honor outstanding MBEs and advocates; promote business opportunities; and report industry trends. This year, President Obama will proclaim National MED Week in October 2015.

MBDA Mission
For more than 45 years, the U.S. Department of Commerce Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA) has led Federal Government efforts to provide support to our nation’s fastest growing business sector – Minority Business Enterprises. With over 5.8 million minority-owned firms operating in the United States, MBDA serves as a catalyst to ensure the continued growth and global competitiveness of MBEs. Our programs and initiatives, as well as our efforts to devise public policy to support this important business cohort, are focused on providing increased access to capital, contracts, and markets—pillars of MBDA’s strategic focus.

MBDA Business Centers
MBDA provides a broad range of professional services and technical assistance to minority business owners through its nationwide network of 44 business centers. In fiscal year 2014, MBDA Business Centers reached new milestones by helping MBEs secure more than $6.9 billion in contracts and capital, of which a record-breaking $784 million resulted from export transactions.

San Diego, California Weather
The average daily temperatures for October range from a low of 61° to a high of 73°.

Attire
Business attire is the standard meeting dress code. The attire for the Awards Banquet is black tie.

While we attempt to keep the meeting rooms at comfortable temperatures, we recognize that “comfortable” is a relative term. We recommend that all attendees bring a sweater, shawl or light jacket.

Entertainment and Hospitality Suites
NMSDC requests that there be no conflict between individual or company entertainment or other activity and the hours of any official Conference program session or activity.

We ask that hospitality suites remain closed during any period when Conference program activities are in progress.

Food Allergies/Dietary Restrictions
NMSDC strives to accommodate guests with special diets. When you register for the Conference, please share your dietary restrictions to help us prepare accordingly. Many of our meals are self-serve or buffet-style and include enough alternatives to accommodate most dietary requirements and preferences. For plated meals, a limited number of alternative meals (e.g., vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free, etc.) are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Advise your server of any dietary restrictions when you arrive at your table to learn your entrée options.

Please note that our caterers do not have separate kitchens to prepare allergen-free items, or separate dining areas for guests with allergies or intolerances. Therefore, we cannot guarantee that cross contact with allergens will not occur.

Responsible Drinking Policy
All NMSDC-sponsored receptions offer non-alcoholic beer and soft drinks, in addition to alcoholic beverages. No alcohol will be served to anyone under the age of 21.

The NMSDC Conference Online
Please visit www.NMSDCConference.com for the most up-to-date Conference information. During the conference, get the latest information from the mobile app.

Leadership DNA: Where Does Leadership Start?
This session will explore the individual’s source of leadership development; discovering how the mix of innate ability, individual life experience, and learned behavior all contribute in shaping leadership style and capabilities. It is delivered to spark conversation and motivate supply management practitioners to embrace the call of leadership when and wherever such opportunities are presented.

Women are K.E.Y. (Knowledgeable, Empowered, “You”nique)
This three hour thought-provoking, engaging, interactive session and “On Your Side” session will focus on building better client relationships – the ultimate reason for our mutual business existence - through improvisation! The seminar will engage woman-owned business entrepreneurs in methodologies that can be used to differentiate themselves and their businesses to promote current relationships and uncover new mutually beneficial opportunities using the power of improvisation. The session will also explore how to better communicate and influence your clients in a positive way.

Leadership Skills to Keep You in the Game
This session will give participants the opportunity to have interactive discussions on personal development and competency. In today’s environment it is important to continue to hone your leadership skills to stay current and remain a value-added resource to your organization. The session will include facilitated conversations on topics such as innovation, adapting personal styles, and functional knowledge.

Building Personal Success by Adapting Your Personal Style
Your success hinges on your ability to work well with others. This session will provide insight into your personal business style and how to adapt your style to be more effective in working with colleagues, customers and suppliers.

“Boot Camp” for MBEs
Sunday: 1:30 - 4:30 p.m.
NMSDC-certified MBEs prosper and grow to scale when they successfully create and deliver real value for their customers. This three hour session is all about your business. We’ll focus on whether you’re choosing the right customers, following a strategy that makes sense for your company, and managing the enterprise in a way that brings you profitability and repeat business. You will be given a diagnostic questionnaire that allows you to evaluate the strengths of your business and the areas that need improvement.
Conference registration is required. Seats are limited and are on a first come, first serve basis.

TUESDAY WORKSHOPS

T1 Making the Business Case for Minority Supplier Development
Learn how to effectively align your business case with the corporation’s goals to gain buy-in. Panelists discuss the roles and responsibilities of key stakeholders and how to communicate a solid business-driven case for a minority supplier development process.

T2 Hot Spots for Growth for MBEs
In this session, MBEs gain insights on how to identify new opportunities for growth in emerging industries. Topics may include education technology, green construction, healthcare, niche business consulting, renewable energy, software as a service and other latest developments in the business world.

T3 Aligning Minority Supplier Development with the Corporate Strategic Planning Process
Strategic planning is a dynamic process that looks into the future and involves every area of the business. Emphasis will be placed on preparing minority supplier development plans that support corporate goals. This includes managing the overall process such as the tracking of milestones, establishing a timeline detailing sequence of activities, resource allocation and monitoring risks (both quantitative and qualitative) for decision-making.

T4 Achieving Excellence through NMSDC Best Practices
Benchmark your minority supplier development activity against the best in the country. Evaluate the quantitative and qualitative aspects of your performance to measure the overall effectiveness of your processes. In this workshop, you will learn the methods and techniques used to achieve superior results by implementing NMSDC Best Practices.

T5 Government Resources to Expand Your Global Footprint
96% of the world’s customers live outside of the United States. Business owners seeking their next customer must look to global markets for growth and expansion. This session will explore the Obama Administration’s customer service driven strategy that streamlines federal resources; improves available data on specific export opportunities, and works closely with financing organizations to increase U.S. exports. Panelists will discuss programs and services that business owners can access locally and around the globe.

T6 Access Federal Contract Opportunities to Diversify & Grow Your Portfolio
Minority Businesses that are seeking to grow their business should attend this thought-provoking session to learn how to best position your company to successfully compete for federal contracts that will be awarded in Fiscal Year 2016. The Federal Government is the largest purchaser of products and services. Each year, the federal government spends more than $1 trillion in goods and services and more than $500 billion is directed to small and disadvantaged businesses. Come hear what these Federal Program Managers are saying about their agency’s forecasted procurements and socioeconomic programs for veteran-owned businesses, women-owned businesses, certified HUBZone and 8(a) firms.

This session is from 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. and will not be repeated.

Lab to Market: Billions in Federally Funded R&D for Minority Business Innovators
10:15 – 11:15 a.m.

Powered by:

The Internet, Global Positioning System (GPS), life-saving vaccines and many other technological advances started as federally funded research. There are billions in federal research and development (R&D) dollars awaiting minority entrepreneurs to commercialize the next great invention. In 2014, the Federal Government awarded more than $2 billion in funding through the Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) programs. Panelists will share tips on how to access federal funding for R&D. They will also share strategies on how to unleash innovation in emerging and cutting edge industries. Don’t miss this unique opportunity to explore the possibilities of commercialized federally funded R&D to empower the growth of your business.

W1 Second Tier: Growth and Development of MBEs
Second Tier programs continue to be an essential component of robust supplier diversity initiatives. Set realistic expectations for MBEs and your suppliers by developing a process that utilizes best practices in contract language, reporting requirements and goal setting. Panelists will share issues and benefits of this consolidation strategy.

W2 Venture Capital Options for MBEs Considering Strategic Partnerships
This session is designed to explore venture capital options, especially for MBEs entering into strategic partnerships (such as joint ventures) in order to achieve greater scale and for supplier diversity professionals who are interested in these types of deals. Panelists will discuss due diligence, the process, and lessons learned in completing deals like acquiring strategic assets.

W3 Accessing Capital to Support Growth of Supply Chain Businesses
Financing needs of an MBE change as they grow from Class I to Class IV. This session is designed for MBEs and for supplier diversity professionals who want to learn more about financing strategies and options. Panelists will discuss methods on how to take advantage of financial resources and share perspectives on issues that may arise and pitfalls to avoid.

W4 Doing Business with Retail Industry: Fast and Furious
Being the first to market, and the speed and agility that is required of our suppliers is critical. Learn why speed and responsiveness is crucial for retail suppliers and what retail corporations need from diverse suppliers. This hour and half session will consist of a panel discussion that will address why supplier diversity is important to retailers; issues and supplier requirements specific to the retail industry will be covered.

This session is from 10:15 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. and will not be repeated.

W5 Innovation: Transforming the Landscape
In today’s competitive marketplace, companies are in search of new meaningful disruptive solutions to meet their customers’ needs, strengthen their market position and enhance their bottom line. This hour and half session is a panel discussion on innovation with individuals who have boldly gone to success in their industries.

Existing entrepreneurs and new startup companies need to develop products and services that deliver a scalable and sustainable business geared for job creation and economic growth in their communities and countries. Collaboration between innovative entrepreneurs and corporate partners will become the driving force for the innovation of the future. Bold vision, creative experiments and committed partners will build a better world.

This session is from 10:15 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. and will not be repeated.

W6 The Capital Intersection: Finding Money in New Places
Access to capital is the number one impediment for all businesses which means that finding the right type of capital can be difficult and cumbersome. This panel will explore a broad spectrum of capital sources and outline how minority-owned firms can best leverage nontraditional methods of financing. The discussion will also introduce new approaches to alternative financing sources for growth, expansion and supply chain financing.

This session is from 10:15 a.m. – 11:15 a.m. and will not be repeated.

W7 Mergers & Acquisitions: Bridge to Billion-Dollar MBEs
This is a two hour session. The intersection of performance, opportunity and access to capital is where business success occurs. While many MBEs have been successful at organic growth, it does not increase capacity at the rate required by corporations. They are seeking MBEs with increased scale and capacity now to include in their supply chain.

In order to meet the needs of NMSDC corporate members and achieve scalability, MBEs will need to consider acquiring other companies as well as strategic assets to grow their business to the next level.

Bank of America, Merrill Lynch, Capital Access Funds and the National Association of Investment Companies (NAIC) will convene a panel of diverse-owned private equity firms, with more than $2 billion in assets under management, that are seeking to invest in top performing diverse suppliers.

Who should attend:
• MBEs with $50 million in revenue or greater
• MBEs interested in growth and expansion
• Corporate Development and Procurement Officers
• Supplier Diversity Professionals

This session is from 10:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. and will not be repeated. (There will be a brief break at mid-point)
